Policies

Vaccinations: Proof of current vaccinations (Rabies, DHLPP, Bordetella) is required prior to attending first training session.

Refunds: Owners purchase an enrollment with a commitment of honoring each appointment and to working with their dog at home throughout the week and between class sessions. Once an owner registers and pays the enrollment fee, a binding commitment has been made that the owner and dog will be attending the class sessions. No make up sessions are offered for missed classes. Refunds will only be made when written proof, from veterinarian or physician, of illness or injury concerning the dog or Owner is presented in a timely manner to Happy Dog Spot. Only unattended sessions will be refunded in this case. In the event there are not enough dogs registered for a scheduled class, the owner will be notified that the class will be rescheduled. If the rescheduled day and time is not agreeable, a full refund will be made.

NO GUARANTEE is given on training programs. Every dog is an individual and the success of ANY training program, no matter how good the instructor or materials, is dependent on the owner/handler's interaction, relationship, amount of practice, and level of commitment. Happy Dog Spot has no way to control these factors and therefore cannot guarantee any final outcome.

Waiver

The signatory and all other individuals associated with ownership of said dog agree not to hold Happy Dog Spot LLC, trainers and staff, thereof liable for any loss or injury, from whatever cause, which may occur upon the vicinity of the training premises or during any training program to 1) said dog, myself or any person handling or training said dog on my behalf, and 2) to any person, animal or thing which may be alleged to have been caused by said dog, myself or any person handling or training said dog on my behalf. I also understand that an adult must accompany any child under the age of 16. Happy Dog Spot LLC may withdraw training privileges for any dog deemed aggressive, overwhelmed due to timidity or lack of socialization, or extremely unruly by the instructor.
